2023 OUTLOOK

Get ready for fun and workshops in the coming year!

The background is a dark teal color with various abstract shapes and patterns. There are wavy lines in orange, purple, and teal. There are also clusters of small white dots in the corners. A large, light red, rounded shape is behind the number '01'.

01 ABOUT US

GBACG History, Mission, and Values

A decorative element consisting of a 3x2 grid of small white dots.

WHO ARE WE?

HISTORY

- 1990: GBACG founded by a group of friends who loved to dress up and gather together.
- 2012: Guild formally became a nonprofit to better further our educational mission.

STRUCTURE

- We are a registered 501(c)3 educational nonprofit.
- Guild activities are supported by annual membership subscriptions and event ticket sales.
- We are governed by a volunteer board of directors, with board officers elected biennially by our membership.

WHAT DO WE BELIEVE IN?

VISION

To create an atmosphere that welcomes all costumers no matter their style of creations or skill.

MISSION

The mission of the Greater Bay Area Costumers Guild shall be to encourage and facilitate the study, appreciation, and creation of costuming as an art form.

WHAT DO WE DO?

Themed, costumed events with entertainment and refreshments

Classes and workshops on costuming-related topics and skills

Costume Academy, an annual day-long educational event

Meetups at museum exhibits and other cultural events related to our mission

The Costumer's Bazaar, a biennial sale of costumes, accessories and crafting materials
