01 ABOUT US

GBACG History, Mission, and Values

WHO ARE WE?

HISTORY

- 1990: GBACG founded by a group of friends who loved to dress up and gather together.
- 2012: Guild formally became a nonprofit to better further our educational mission.

STRUCTURE

- We are a registered 501(c)3 educational nonprofit.
 - Guild activities are supported by annual membership subscriptions and event ticket sales.
 - We are governed by a volunteer board of directors, with board officers elected biennially by our membership.

WHAT DO WE BELIEVE IN?

VISION

To create an atmosphere that welcomes all costumers, no matter the style of their creations or their skill.

MISSION

The mission of the Greater Bay Area Costumers Guild shall be to encourage and facilitate the study, appreciation, and creation of costuming as an art form.

WHAT DO WE DO?

Themed, costumed events with entertainment and refreshments

Classes and workshops on costuming-related topics and skills

Costume Academy, an annual day-long educational event

Meetups at museum exhibits and other cultural events related to our mission

The Costumer's Bazaar, a recurring sale of costumes, accessories and crafting materials

The background is a dark teal color with several abstract, colorful wavy lines in orange, teal, and purple. There are also small white dots arranged in a grid pattern in the bottom left and top right corners.
